LOCAL NEWS.

Read the advertisement in another column of the St. Johns Drug Company.

Judge Wright will open court at Kingman, Mohave county, on next Monday, and come from there to St. Johns on the following Monday, the 12th.

There are some who will pass a good many restless nights during the next two or three weeks. In the language of a contemporary, "the mill of the gods grinds slow, but they get there all the same."

The grand and petit jurors were drawn yesterday. We were unable to obtain a list for publication, but will give them next week. We need a good grand jury for this term of court—one that will work, and that with a will.

Notice was received last Tuesday morning from Judge Wright to draw the grand and petit jurors for the term of court which commences in this place on the 12th inst. If the Judge stays with us until all the cases on the docket are disposed of, we may look for a visit of several weeks' duration.

The residents of Commercial street are doing a much needed work, in clearing off the loose cobble stones that have been a nuisance to all pedestrians from time immemorial. They should continue the good work, however, by taking up a subscription and having the street from the Catholic church to the court house cleaned of all loose stones. Some one take charge of the matter and push it through to a successful issue.

It is said that Wyatt Earp, who once figured prominently in this Territory as one of the "bad" men, has gone with a posse to run down the highwaymen who recently robbed a train on the S. P. road. Earp, if we are not mistaken, left this Territory because the climate was getting rather warm for him, and it may be that he is availing himself of this opportunity to play even.

The Hoof and Horn says nothing definite has been heard from Sheriff Mullen and posse who left Prescott on Sunday last to arrest parties implicated in the recent killing in Tonto Basin. The critical condition of affairs in that section has caused much apprehension for the safety of the Sheriff and posse, and it is feared that the parties for whom warrants have been issued will refuse to be arrested, in which case bloodshed is bound to ensue.

Murray Johnson came in last Tuesday from his White Mountain ranch. He informed us that all the old settlers on the north and east side of the White Mountain Apache Reservation are of the opinion the Indians are preparing for an outbreak. They are buying all the ammunition they can get hold of, and are stealing all the horses they possibly can with any degree of safety. They drove off and butchered two cows he had up milking—left the calves in the corral. Have stolen a good many horses from the sheep men around the mountains. One outfit was left entirely afoot, and they made two trips to Camp Apache, in the vain endeavor to recover the stolen horses.

We trust Judge Wright will be able to stay with us until the docket is cleared. There are a great many cases that should be tried during this term of court—both criminal and civil. Some in which the people of the entire county are directly interested. It is time we should know whether a person who will go before a magistrate and swear he is worth the money for which he becomes responsible, can be made to pay that money, and if he does not, whether there is any law in the Territory under which he can be punished for perjury. It may be that the losses to the Territory by straw bonds will not amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars, as Judge Murphy declared it did in San Francisco; but, if the matter was investigated, it could be shown that the Territory was a heavy loser by this pernicious practice. We hope the matter will be investigated, and that thoroughly, by the grand jury which will sit on the 12th.

RODEO NOTICE.

The Executive Committee of the Apache County Stock Association at its meeting held at Holbrook, on July 31st, arranged the rodeo as follows:

The work will begin at the Meadows on September 5th, and work substantially as it was last year, viz: From Meadows over Wabash range to twenty-four ranch; thence to Esquidilla mountains, Mangus Springs, Cow Springs and Coyote, and continue on to the CC range and thence down the Show Low.

At the Meadows the work will be in charge of Mr. Henry Smith. On the Wabash range, Mr. Young Jenkins will be Captain. From the Twenty-four ranch to the range of Huning & Cooley, Mr. Bob Thomas will be Captain. From thence and down the Show Low, Mr. Juan Sepulveda, Captain.

Going west from the Meadows along the Colorado river to Woodruff, Mr. Nat Greer will be Captain. From Woodruff on down the river, Mr. Ed. Rogers will take charge. At Holbrook Mr. Rodgers will divide his party, sending an outfit up the Puerco to, and beyond if necessary, Bennett's ranch; thence swing round by Tanner Springs, working the Leroux wash, over the X ranges, then down the Cottonwood to its mouth, joining the other party at Clear Creek. The remainder of Mr. Roger's outfit will work down the river to Clear Creek, where, after joining party No. 1 the entire outfit will work back between the creeks to the Verde road, then east through the mountains, via Wilford, Phoenix Park and the Indian Tanks to Show Low.

The Committee proposes to make this rodeo as thorough and careful as possible, and to that end the attention of the various Captains is called to these suggestions: Work slowly and satisfy yourself and the men whose range you are on that you have seen all the stock on it. There is no need of rushing the work at all. Consult with the men who control the range over which you work, and work according to their desires and convenience as much as possible. Brand every calf you can, no matter to whom it belongs. This Association proposes to put a stop to "mavericking" if it can be done, and the Committee believes that by branding every calf found, it will greatly decrease the number of mavericks, and thus lessen the temptation to steal. Keep a careful record of such brands, and in case you find no owner to report them, send the brand and tally in to the Secretary of the Association, and they will be advertised in the HERALD. And finally set squarely down on horse racing and gambling.
